

To: FCC

Re: Cell phone numbers

I support allowing customers to keep their phone numbers when they change carriers. I give mine out to business clients and do not want to have to periodically notify them when I make changes.

The current situation is keeping me from searching for a better service.

Gretchen Monti